Our principles

We are absolutely committed to protecting your privacy. Our policy can be summarised in one sentence: we will not share your information with others without your consent.

- We will respect your email privacy. You will only receive email from ChristCentral in relation to ChristCentral matters e.g. latest news, future events, funding opportunities, etc.
- We will not share any individual user details (including your email address) to any third party without your consent.

What information do we collect?

- For email sign-up and contact forms we keep the minimum information needed to identify you and be able to communicate with you.
- For registration, we ask for information necessary for event badges, payment confirmation i.e. name and address, dietary needs and contact details. For donations, we keep the minimum information necessary to verify payments and claim Gift Aid.

Who will have access to your information?

By default, your personal information will be visible to our internal, authenticated users of the site. Such personnel are only allowed to use that data for ChristCentral purposes. They are not allowed to transfer it to another organisation.

What else you should know about privacy?

This is to ensure that others cannot access your personal information and correspondence if you share a computer with someone else or are using a computer in a public place like a library or Internet cafe. You as an individual are responsible for the security of, and access to, your own computer.

Please be aware that whenever you voluntarily disclose personal information over the Internet that this information can be collected and used by others. In short, if you post personal information in publicly accessible online forums, you may receive unsolicited messages from other parties in return.
